

SPRING SESSIONS

iPads, iPhones, and Low Vision- This virtual 3-week course will cover how to use the following features: zoom, magnifier, increased contrast and enlarged text. The content is the same as the fall session. Join us: March 1st, 8th, 15th from 10am – 11:30am

VoiceOver Basics for VI Professionals- A series of virtual, one-hour sessions on the basics of VoiceOver for TVI's and O&M Instructors on March 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th from 12:30 – 1:30pm.

BARD App- SC Talking Books will lead a workshop on the free, iOS Braille and Audio Reading Download app on April 5th from 10am – 11:30am. Class format will be in-person with virtual option available.

Seeing AI- An in-depth virtual workshop on this free Artificial Intelligence app that audibly describes the people, objects and text around you. (iOS devices) Join us April 19th from 10am – 11:30am.

Speaking Email- An in-depth virtual workshop on the iOS app that speaks your emails aloud and navigates your Inbox via speech recognition technology. Join us April 26th from 10am – 11:30am.

Registration required for all events. Visit our website @ www.tvisc.org/Events to register.

*The link to Virtual classes for the Spring Session will be sent via email with the registration confirmation.

Save the Date!
Tuesday, May 3rd, 2022

Ask-the-Trainer

We have three remaining dates for a personalized instructional session with our Independent Living Director.

Do you have a personal device that could be more accessible? Is there an app we can demonstrate to make life a little easier? Register online via our Events page for a personalized, private 75-minute session.

TEXTING

Now Available!

You can now reach us via text at: 803-258-5575

Let's Connect:

Email us at info@tvisc.org to join our mailing list and hear about current events!